The House having under consideration the bill reported by the Committee on Military Affairs, to provide for raising two additional regiments of riflemen, and for other purposes, and the question being upon the motion to commit the bill to the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union, and Mr. John Quincy Adams and Mr. C. J. Ingersoll, and others, having addressed the House at length - Mr. Winthrop obtained the floor, and proceeded to say, that he understood the Chair to have decided that, upon the pending motion to refer to the Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union a bill for raising two regiments of riflemen, the whole question of Oregon was open to debate. The House, too, had virtually sanctioned this decision, by declining to sustain the previous question a few moments since. Mr....
