EDA officials said that they generally tried to limit the amount of grant funds that were used for remediation activities, per an EDA Directive effective July 1992 and later clarified in a memorandum from the Acting Assistant Secretary of EDA in June 2000, which states that EDA typically participates in hazardous waste cleanups as part of a larger economic development project, but not as the principal activity of the EDA funded activity. As previously stated and further shown in the examples presented below, we generally found this to be true for the projects...
