Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Patriotic and Promiscuous Poems On the 9th of August, 1862, I enlisted in the United States Volunteer Army, for three years, or during the Civil War. Later our company (G) was assigned to the Thirty-fifth Iowa Volunteer Infantry, whose first camp was on Muscatine Island, near the city of Muscatine, Iowa. While there a number of the soldiers subscribed for the Muscatine Journal. At one time during the following winter several of our regiment were in the General Hospital at Cairo, Illinois, myself among the number. One day one of them asked me if I had seen an article of poetry published in the Muscatine Journal and written (by a private of our regiment) on a building at Camp Strong. I had not seen the paper, but asked him if he could repeat any of the lines. After he repeated some of them I told him I had written it while on guard there. No doubt but I would have forgotten the circumstance had it not been called to my mind. I think it was about twenty-four years after the war and while our regimental associations were having their second reunion at Muscatine. I went to the Journal office and in the files of November, 1862, I easily found the following items: Camp Strong, Nov. 14th, 1862. The following original lines, author unknown shows that there is a Poet in the ranks. They are recorded on the door post of the Secretary s Office at the entrance of the Fair Grounds. The place is noted for the number of empty clothing boxes, but very little else. A guard is kept there day and night,...
