Excerpt: . room, followed by Masha s laughter. His mother apologized for him. How can we stand this terrible heat? It s enough to make people go about naked. She then threw into Charlie his shirt and trousers, which had been drying on the fire escape. For Charlie had washed them on his return from his work. I ve come to take Charlie out for a walk in the Park, said Masha. Better take a ride out to Coney Island and go in bathing.--It s so muggy. I m always urging him to go to Coney Island, but he s such a lazy fellow. He just hangs around the house all day long over his books, said the mother. Your mother is right, Charlie. We ll go to Coney Island. On the way I ll step into my house for my bathing suit. Take yours...
