President Guild was in the chair, and the records of the last annual and monthly meetings were read by the Clerk, and approved. The President then read his Annual Address: President Curtis Guilds Address. Recollections Of A Boston Schoolboy. Boston sixty years ago; the boys of Boston of that period, - yes, I recollect them well, for I was one of them. Then Boston Common was our play-ground. On Wednesday and Saturday afternoons, which were school holidays, we met there with our hockeys, and two of the larger boys chose sides; then with our leaders and from ten to fifteen companions, each party formed on either side of a walk equidistant from the path leading from the Frog Pond to West Street on the south and the Park Street Mall on the north, which served as bounds. The ball was placed on the ground, and a boy on that side which had secured the right for the first fair lick, stood with hockey upraised and ready.
