Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Five Years Residence in New Zealand: Or Observations on Colonization My Lord, The high and undeviating position sustained by your Lordship, over an illustrious Association, by whom a very interesting Colony has been founded, on principles which excited obloquy and abuse from those whose pleasures in life arose mainly from experiencing immediate returns from their money invested, had gained my entire admiration, and causes it to be felt as a high honour to be now permitted to dedicate to you the experience of five years, which have been regarded as a happy time spent in investigating a subject which has presented almost daily something new and interesting to be learned. The example set in avowing our obligation to support the ministers of our professed religion was not lost on the early Colonists; and the consistent opposition shown to speculating in the Waste Land of the young Colony, as being detrimental to material progress, in withdrawing attention from the more serious business of raising crops for sale, has been duly appreciated by those who look beyond the present moment. - The example of personal sacrifices made by your Lordship will be remembered, and will ever endear your name to posterity, in the Colony you have founded: whose residents sincerely hope they may some day have the pleasure of seeing you visit it. The kindly aid you and the Association you presided over gave in obtaining from the Imperial Legislature the boon of self-government affording thereby scope for individuals whose minds have been duly trained to lead their fellow-men, and direct their attention to higher aims than the pursuit of mere pecuniary gains has been felt not...
